Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Men Spear of the Slings Spears died Friday in Nashville.

The hippie movement is dead. San Francisco hippies held a "funeral" to symbolize the death of their movement.

Don't get your hopes up, however, because from the ashes of this movement a new one rises. This one is called the frebies. Every man a free man, man.

The hippies purged themselves of all evil depositing these "bad vibrations" in a black casket 22 feet long.

They dropped in beads, money, draft cards, and other odds and ends which they consider to corrupt mankind, and burned the whole mess.

Takes all kinds of folks to make up this world. Take the fellow at the London airport. He has figured out some way to hook in with the public address system of the airport and he is having fun. His announcements run this way: "The plane standing at platform three will land at London Bridge, Charing Cross and Waterloo". Then he comes in with "Owing to technical difficulties, there will be a three-hour delay on the flight to New York unless any passenger can supply us with an elastic band". Naturally they don't know who the fellow is and how he has hooked into the PA system.

Reminds us of the fellow in our outfit who came up with "A chicken is roasting but a bird", routine. He never was found out either. Come to think of it this may be the same guy.

Picture of dejection last night was David Wall as he walked off the field.

Running a close second was John Mark Hale. Don't worry fellows, there will come another day.

It has been said that recently is the mother of invention, and we found this to be true last night.

We purchased one cup of coffee, two cakes and two dozens of popcorn (they are not home, no socks, merely doctored). Having only two hands at the moment, we still had to figure out a way to get all of this food to the press box.

We did it this way. Since the doles are pointed at the bottom, we stuck one in our front coat pocket, and stuck the other in a side pocket. That left our hands free for the two cakes and one coffee.

Naturally we had to walk carefully, but we made it.

We were shocked yesterday at a report on Ramsey-Bentley, which nearly made us sick. This was the "enlightened" method of teaching some disturbed children which involved shouting all day long, shaking them, etc. All this was described as the best way to teach them.

Without exception the children, being so abused, were crying. They were severely disturbed by the "treatment" by these "educators".

Maybe this new kind of treatment is wonderful, but it seemed to us that it was made to order for a sadist.

Any man who thinks he is going to be happy and prosperous by letting the government take care of him, should take a close look at the American Indian.

V. Starks of Murray.

Kentucky Division Of UDC Concludes Meeting Friday

The Kentucky Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met in their annual session October 4, 5, and 6 at the Holiday Inn here in Murray with the local chapter as host.

The meeting opened with the President's dinner Wednesday evening in the conference room. Mrs. W. Z. Carter, president of the local chapter, presided and welcomed the visitors to Murray. She introduced Charles Simons who gave an informative demonstration of drum music, and then Mrs. Wade Little of Lexington, Division president, was presented with her staff of Division officers. Mrs. Little introduced as speaker of the evening Charles Helms, head librarian at Murray University, who gave an interesting talk on General Nathan B. Forrest and General Hunt Morgan.

On Thursday morning the business session was opened according to the ritual with the following Division officers taking part: president, Mrs. Wade Little of Lexington; 2nd vice president, Mrs. John Clark of Princeton; recording secretary, Mrs. Rose Buchanan of Morganfield; treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Coleman of Lexington; Registrar, Mrs. George Deaton of Louisville; and historian, Miss Kathryn Vaughn of Louisville. Other distinguished guests present were Mrs. Josephine Turner, Honorary President General of Lexington, Mrs. Corine Watkins of Smithfield, Mrs. Elmer Deas of Lexington, Mrs. Henry McKenry of Cadiz, and Mrs. Morton Jett of Paducah. A large delegation from Princeton also attended.

The real daughters in attendance were honored at a luncheon and presented boxes of candy by the local chapter. These honorees were Mrs. Helen Laster and Mrs. J. B. Starks of Murray, Mrs. Llanby of Princeton, Mrs. Ethel Helms of Princeton, Mrs. Sidney Delaney of Lexington and Mrs. George Deas of Louisville. A memorial service, directed by Miss Llanby of Paducah, honored our members throughout the state who have passed away in the last year.

Thursday night's program, with Mrs. Hunt Smock as local historian opening the meeting, was highlighted by an address by Dr. William Corley, Director of Midway College. His talk was followed by a clever arrangement of songs of the Confederate period sung by Mrs. Joseph Darnell who was dressed in antique costume and sang to her own accompaniment of the autoharp.

Mrs. Morton Jett, on behalf of the Paducah chapter, presented to the Division Museum a Confederate flag which had been given their chapter by Ella Townsend in memory of her father, A. V. Townsend, of Co. D, 4th Ky. Inf.

Collisions Are Reported By Police

Two traffic collisions were investigated by the Murray Police Department on Friday, according to reports filed by the police officers.

At 8:25 p.m. Frederick Louis Taber, Kirksey Route One, driving a 1964 Ford pickup truck, was stopped, ready to make a right turn off of 16th Street onto Main while going west.

Blanche Yewell Martin, 6013 Lagrange Road, Louisville, driving a 1965 Rambler station wagon, was backing off of the lot at Ed West's Grocery onto 16th Street when the collision occurred, according to Patrolman Dan Kelly.

Damage to the Taber truck was on the right rear side of the truck bed, and to the Martin car on the right rear fender.

At nine p.m. Judith Ann Hargis, 306 South 12th Street, driving a 1961 Dodge four door hardtop owned by Henry Hargis, was stopped on Highway 941 to turn into Jerry's Drive in James Ray Store of Murray Route Four.

Driving a 1965 Chevrolet two door hardtop, didn't see the Hargis car in time to avoid hitting it in the rear end, according to Patrolman Max Morris.

Damage to the Hargis car was on the right rear fender, deck lid, and bumper, and damage to the Store car was on the front end.

Michael Rose Will Leave For Overseas

E-3 Euel Michael Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Euel Rose, 801 North 18th Street, Murray, was scheduled to leave Fort Gordon, Ga., today for Fort Dix, New Jersey, where he will leave for overseas.

Rose has been assigned to a tour of duty with the U.S. Army at Ansbach, Germany. He entered the Army in February of this year and took his basic training at Fort Benning, Ga.

The Murray man was then sent to Fort Gordon, Ga., for special radio repair school.

Rose is a graduate of Calloway County High School in the class of 1964 and attended Murray State University for 2 1/2 years. He was employed at Tidwell's Paint Store prior to entering the service.

He married the former Rosetta Shelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shelton, on September 1, 1966, and she has been with him at Fort Gordon and plans to join her husband in Germany later.

Rose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rose, and his brother, Barry, an eighth grade student at Kirksey School, went to Fort Gordon on Wednesday for a visit with their son and brother before he left for overseas. His wife returned to Murray with them.

FIVE CITED

Five persons were cited by the Murray Police Department on Friday and Friday night. They were two for reckless driving, and one each for disregarding a stop sign, unnecessary noise, and public drunkenness.

Good Defensive Battle Brings Tigers 6 to 6 Tie

A charged up and greatly improved Trigg County Wildcat team, with the emphasis on defense, neatly scotched the aspirations of the Murray High Tigers last night to leave the Class A standings the way they were when the game began, all tied up between the Tigers and the Wildcats.

Coach Ken Barett's Trigg team swapped tackle for tackle and block for block last night with the Tigers and walked away with a great moral victory in the 6-6 tie. This is the closest that Trigg County ever came to downing Murray who has always won the series.

After a 0-0 first quarter, Murray stepped out in front when slick Don Shelton went over from the one after Terry Hart had failed to the right side of the line.

Carl Stinner tried the extra point kick but failed.

The drive which led to the TD started when Murray's Mike Smith intercepted a Trigg pass on his own 30 yard line. John Mark Hale to the Murray 40 then rumbled all the way to the Trigg 32. Hart kicked the pass to end Jerry Knight which was blocked by an alert Trigg team.

Shelton carried the ball on the next three plays, to the 41, then to the 49, and on the third play breaking loose and rambling all the way to the Trigg 43.

A Hale to Knight pass was good to the 34 yard line, then Shelton moved to the 31. A Hale to Shelton pass was good to the Trigg 18. Duryea moved to the 12 then the 3. Terry Hart bulled to the 1. Shelton slid over the line for the score with 46 seconds left in the half.

Trigg County picked up their score in the fourth quarter after Murray had kicked out to the Trigg 31. In fifteen plays Trigg County moved the ball toward the Murray goal and were on the Murray 25 when the third quarter ended. Their TD came with 8:47 left in the game when Jerry Stroud took it over from the Murray 1 on a fourth down play. Roy Radford attempted to run the extra point which failed.

It was a bruising defensive game which saw stubborn refusal to give ground on the part of both teams.

The defense exhibited by the Trigg squad was surprising to Tiger fans who have seen Murray High win over the Wildcats year after year.

The work of Bob Rutledge, 161 pound Murray defensive end and Bill Helms, end was superb throughout the night. Rutledge, time and again, picked off the ball carrier with dogged relentlessness.

The entire Murray defensive line worked well last night and with the exception of the one touchdown contained the Trigg offense well. David Wall was another Murray defense man who gave it all he had for the night.

The Murray defense forced Trigg to give up the ball shortly after the game got underway. Trigg picked up two first downs to the Murray 35, but were stopped cold there.

David Wall broke through and nailed the ball carrier on the 33 for a three yard loss and on the next play Rutledge and Helms reared in on the quarterback as he attempted to get a pass away for another loss.

Murray took the punt and began a drive which would end on the Trigg County 13 where they could go no further.

After moving the ball back to the Trigg 30 yard line in a brilliant run by Don Shelton, Hale fumbled the ball and Trigg recovered. Failing to gain, Trigg kicked out to the Murray 36. In two plays Shelton moved the ball to the Murray 40 then rumbled all the way to the Trigg 32. Hart kicked the pass to end Jerry Knight which was blocked by an alert Trigg team.

An investment in Your Future ...ATTEND CHURCH America the Beautiful...

From the time that Columbus discovered America... men have thought of this country as something special. It was here that Ponce de Leon sought the Fountain of Youth, and men have long admired America's majestic mountains and beautiful valleys. However, the real beauty lies not in the land, but in the people. The people came... seeking a land where they could worship God in freedom, and under God developed a kind and loving spirit. This is what makes America beautiful.

Attend church regularly... help keep America beautiful.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Kitchen Shower At Smith Home Given For Bride-elect

Another delightful courtesy extended to Mrs. Tordis Parker, bride-elect of Steven West, was the kitchen shower held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Smith on Sunset Boulevard on Tuesday, October 3, at ten o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Chester Thomas, Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Harold Ogan, and Mrs. Smith were the gracious hostesses for the occasion.

For the principal event the bride-elect was to wear a selection black and white checked a-line knit and was presented a novelty sponge fashioned of kitchen gadgets.

Mrs. J. P. Parker, mother of the bride-elect, wore a gray two piece dress and Mrs. Helen West, mother of the groom-elect, was sitting in a blue dress.

The bride-elect opened her many gifts for the guests to view.

Refreshments of cakes, coffee, and Colas were served from the table covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of marigolds.

Included in the hospitality were Mesdames Edward L. Housden, Howard Housden, Earl Steele, Jim Rice, Max Walker, Jim Garrison, Billy Edmonds, Allen Rice, Thomas Jones, Josie Miller, Tina Weaver, Gene Cox, Kenneth Jackson, Gay Spence, J. W. Young, Betty Coulson, S. C. Waller, Bill Reed, Mae Carol Housden, the bridesmaids, mothers, and the hostesses.

Mrs. Olus McNelis Hostess For Jessie Ludwick Meeting

Mrs. Olus McNelis was hostess Tuesday, October 3, to the Jessie Ludwick Circle of the First Presbyterian Church at her home on South 15th Street.

The vice-chairman, Mrs. Rex Housden, opened the meeting by reading the message of the month from the Year Book of Prayer.

During the business session Mrs. Jessie Rogers and Mrs. Charles Crawford, the nominating committee, presented their selection of officers for the coming year.

Elected were Mrs. McNelis, chairman; Mrs. Housden, vice-chairman; Mrs. Crawford, treasurer; Mrs. Rogers, secretary.

Prayers for the church, which this circle will be responsible for during the next three months, were discussed, and also vacation days at the hospital.

The Bible study was given by Mrs. Crawford from the fifth chapter of "Joy For An Anxious Age" based on Paul's letters to the Philippians.

Mrs. McNelis gave a delightful review of the first part of Dr. Paul Turner's book, "The Adventure of Living".

The meeting was closed with prayer after which the hostess served delicious refreshments to the nine members present.

Melugin Home Scene Of Circle Meeting

Mrs. Noel Melugin opened her home on Olive Street for the meeting of Circle 1 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held on Tuesday, October 3, at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning.

The program on "Different Ways of Worship in Baptist Churches of Hong Kong and Germany" was presented by Mrs. Helen McDaniels as the leader.

Others taking part in the program were Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Owen Billington, and Mrs. Orville Anderson.

Prayers were led by Mrs. Jack Kennedy and Mrs. George Upchurch. The chairman, Mrs. Melugin, presided and served refreshments during the social hour.

Also present were Mrs. Orville Hendon and Mrs. Lena Collier.

Miss Susan Williams Becomes The Bride Of Clayton Hargrove In Beautiful Ceremony Performed At The Salem Baptist Church

MR. and MRS. CLAYTON HARGROVE

Miss Susan Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutton Williams of Lynn Grove, became the bride of Clayton Hargrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hargrove of Murray, in a beautiful ceremony in the sanctuary of the Salem Baptist Church.

Rev. Bill Knight performed the impressive double ring ceremony on Saturday, August 26, at seven o'clock in the evening.

The bride and groom were escorted by a white limousine and a white pickup truck. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a high collar. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a bow tie.

The bride's bouquet was composed of white carnations and white roses. The groom's boutonniere was a white carnation. The wedding cake was a three-tiered cake with white frosting and white flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white silk with a full skirt and a high collar. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a bow tie.

The wedding ceremony was held in the sanctuary of the Salem Baptist Church. Rev. Bill Knight performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were escorted by a white limousine and a white pickup truck. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a high collar. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a bow tie.

Stanley Hargrove served as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Ronnie Hargrove, brother of the groom, Henry Armstrong, and Ralph Singer. Ushers were James Harold Housden and Ken Allen Miller.

Master Chuck Williams, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer. He carried a satin pillow of white with white ribbon streamers. The guest register was kept by Mrs. Jimmy Dale Lamb who was a cousin of Clayton Hargrove.

Mrs. Charles Hutton Williams, mother of the bride, chose to wear a white gown with a full skirt and a high collar. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses. The groom's boutonniere was a white carnation.

Mrs. T. C. Hargrove, mother of the groom, was seated in an ornate two-piece limousine with matching accessories. Her carriage was of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Ann W. Simmons and Mrs. C. J. Williams, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Alma Cooper, grandmother of the groom, were corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered in white, overlaid with white and which was draped at the corners and center with yellow bows and daisies. Centering the table was a seven branched candelabra arrangement of yellow Kilian daisies, anemones, and Fuji mums. Southern statice and daisies were arranged around the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with the traditional bride and groom replica, and the crystal punch bowl.

Serving the cake and punch to the guests were Mrs. Carolyn Craig, Mrs. Michael Miller, Mrs. Frankie Cooper, and Miss Faye Fulton. They were corsages of Kilian daisies.

Small net bags of rice, tied with ribbons of yellow and green were passed out by the flower girls.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Chester Summers and John Summers of Memphis, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Orval Simmons of Jackson, Tenn., Mrs. Marvin Smyth, Carol, Don, Nancy and Mark Smyth of Paris, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burt, Harold and Bill Burt of Oliver, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adger, Judy Clark, Miss La Donna Clapp, John R. Hicks and Miss Barbara Clark of Maryland.

Following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip. The bride wore a navy knit dress with accents of yellow and orange, and many accessories. At her shoulder was pinned the white

It's John's Move to Make Peace

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I went with John (fake name) for four years and my mother hated him. In fact she told me she would rather see me dead than married to John. Well, when I became of age I married John against my mother's wishes and you should have heard the terrible things she said about him. I couldn't even put them in this letter. She did her best to ruin his reputation.

Now that we are going to have a baby my mother is trying to make-up with John. John says he will never set foot in her house and if she wants to see me or the baby she will have to come here during the day time while he is not at home. My mother even wanted to have a birthday party for me, and John said I could go if I wanted to, but he wasn't going. What can I do, Abby? I can't blame John for feeling the way he does, but she is still my mother and this is making it awfully hard on me. JOE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If in those John finds it in his heart to make peace with your mother — and I hope he does, fine. But until he does, continue to see your mother while John's at work.

DEAR ABBY: I feel so silly — a grown woman with three children asking for help with this problem, but here goes. I have a sister who brings her friends to my home to give them what she laughingly calls "The 50-Cent Tour."

I wouldn't mind so much if only she would give me a little notice, but she has brought people over here as early as 9 in the morning when my beds are unmade and I'm looking a wreck sorting laundry.

I do have a nice home, Abby, but it's not always in condition for inspection. Don't you think my sister should give me a chance to fix it up before showing it off? How can I get this across to her without getting her angry with me?

DEAR DROPPED: You sound like the type who would greet welcome guests at the door with a big smile and open arms, and then wonder why they continue to drop in on you. If you haven't told your sister to PLEASE call in advance so you can set a mutually convenient time for her "50-cent tour," I suggest that you put in your two cents.

DEAR ABBY: My son is 11 years. He is a very shy and protected child. He sleeps in the same room with his 10-year-old sister, and I tuck them both into bed every night.

The boy knows nothing of the facts of life and I think it is time he was told. Shouldn't his father be the one to tell him? I will be glad to tell the girl when the time comes, but I think a father should tell his son. His father says the boy is much too young to have his head filled with things like that and to give him time yet. How much time should I give him?

DEAR WORRIED: First, about your sleeping arrangements. Your son should have his privacy and your daughter hers. Even if one of them has to sleep in the kitchen or the hall — or on the floor.

It doesn't matter who tells a boy (or girl) the facts of life as long as they are told as soon as they become curious. Try to cultivate a relaxed family atmosphere so that if either of your children has a question he will not hesitate to ask. (P. S. And tell your husband to hurry with his "facts" or it will be like giving a fish a bath.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO WONDERING IN WORTHINGTON: "Age" doesn't mean much with some fellows. They'll take anything from two to 100.

U. S. SUPPORTS INTEREST WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says the United States Department says the United States supports South Vietnam interests in seeking political contacts with the Viet Cong.

State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey, referring to statements by South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu, said Friday the U. S. position on such contacts was "one of support if it is in the wish and policy of the government of South Vietnam."

Beginning . . .

Our 82nd. Year Of Leadership

October 8, 1967

October 8, 1886 . . . October 8, 1967

Today, October 8, we enter our 82nd year of service to Murray and Calloway County.

Proud as we are of our past, we are inclined to review it only as a background against which to build an even greater future. We are concerned with the present and look to the future with an even greater confidence.

We have only one business and one purpose . . . a more complete funeral service with Reverence, Sincerity, Dignity and Economy. We hold no public office, either state, county or city; and therefore can devote our entire time and effort to ministering to the needs of the people of Murray and Calloway County.

Our three professional cars are of the latest design and model built to the highest standard of acceptable Craftsmanship. Our exclusive ambulance is a 1967 Cadillac fully equipped with air conditioning and oxygen and also all other first aid equipment recommended by Red Cross for your protection, comfort and safety. The two other cars are combination funeral car and ambulance but also equipped as above, assuring prompt service 24 hours a day.

Members of our full-time staff are Ronald W. Churchill, Rebecca W. Churchill, William B. Britton, Kenneth C. Imes, Eunice Overbey, and Eugene Kirk.

It has been our pleasure and privilege to grow with the City of Murray and Calloway County, and on many occasions to make contributions in time and financial support to community growth. Our new and modern funeral home is the symbol of confidence toward that end and it also represents the dream of the present owner. We have added our third stateroom to give further privacy to those whom we are privileged to serve.

There is always a freedom of choice in funeral costs. We make no effort at any time to influence the family's decision in the selection room. We display a range of caskets, and of prices, to meet the need of any family and to satisfy every preference. All merchandise displayed and sold, is of recognizable quality throughout the profession.

We are proud of our memberships in national, state and district Funeral Director's Associations. Our memberships have been continuous and of long standing for many years. These associations enable us to handle all arrangements anywhere, with a minimum of time and expense, reflecting our day by day professional assistance to every family in every circumstance.

We maintain the very highest of ethical and financial standing between all the above organizations, as well as all manufacturers, local businesses, and funeral directors throughout the nation. We have personal and professional pride in all our services.

We are authorized to service all burial policies. We are charter members of the Kentucky Funeral Directors Burial Association.

We pledge a continued interest, a revival of effort, and renewal of our principles of fair dealing with the public, fully realizing that we could not have become successful without both our new and old friends. We are thankful and express our deepest appreciation to all.
